Overview

Henry Sewell focuses his practice in the areas of bankruptcy and restructuring while also maintaining a general commercial litigation practice.

With respect to bankruptcy and restructuring, Mr. Sewell has extensive experience representing examiners, creditors' committees, trustees and creditors in complex Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Cases and in pre-bankruptcy workouts. Mr. Sewell has also represented financial institutions and secured creditors in state court enforcement actions, including actions to appoint receivers for commercial real estate and foreclosure actions. Mr. Sewell also regularly represents court appointed fiduciaries in SEC and CFTC enforcement actions.

In addition to his bankruptcy practice, Mr. Sewell has extensive experience handling commercial litigation matters, including trials, arbitrations and appeals in a wide variety of complex matters. Most recently, Mr. Sewell has handled complex and difficult disputes regarding real estate, breach of contract, business torts, and corporate governance.

Mr. Sewell has particular experience litigating disputes regarding governance and control of limited liability companies; disputes regarding title and claims to real estate; and extraordinary remedies including temporary restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions and declaratory relief.

Mr. Sewell has been recognized by Chambers USA as one of Georgia's leading lawyers for bankruptcy and restructuring and has been named a Georgia Super Lawyer since 2010 by Atlanta Magazine.
