

JUDGE ROBERT KWAN

Judge Kwan was appointed by the Ninth Circuit to the United States Bankruptcy Court for Central District of California in February 2007. Judge Kwan maintains chambers in Los Angeles. Previously, Judge Kwan served as an Assistant United States Attorney, Deputy Chief, Tax Division, U.S. Attorney's Office, Central District of California, where he litigated civil tax and bankruptcy cases, prosecuted criminal tax cases and supervised IRS attorneys representing the government in bankruptcy tax matters. He also was a trial attorney for the Civil Rights and Tax Divisions in the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., and was in general private practice in Los Angeles. He is a graduate of Yale College (B.A.), Hastings College of the Law, University of California (J.D.) and Georgetown University Law Center, LL.M (Tax).