

Jordan Vimont

Jordan Vimont is a partner with Reid Collins & Tsai. Jordan has represented clients nationally and internationally in a variety of business litigation and transactional matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Jordan was an attorney in the corporate, business and banking section of Fulbright & Jaworski, L.L.P. where he advised clients on a variety of matters, including securities offerings and disclosures, mergers and acquisitions, credit facilities, energy trading compliance, internal investigations, and corporate governance.

Jordan received his J.D., with honors, from the University of Texas School of Law and was a recipient of the Herbert S. Bonham Law Scholarship. During law school he worked as judicial intern at the Texas Supreme Court for Justice Scott Brister.

Prior to law school, Jordan worked as an accountant at Ernst & Young where he provided tax compliance and consulting services to Fortune 500 companies and high-net worth individuals. He received his Masters in Professional Accounting and B.B.A. from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin.

Jordan is admitted to practice in all Texas state courts and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas.
