

M. Kathleen Klein is a Certified Public Accountant in Fresno, California. Her firm specializes in the areas of taxation, bankruptcy, and insolvency issues. She provides services to chapter 7 and 11 trustees, bankruptcy attorneys and Debtors in Possession. Services provided include preparation of tax returns, preference analysis, and cash flow analysis for both liquidations and reorganizations, and preparation of monthly reports of operation. In addition, she assists clients outside of bankruptcy in dealing with unpaid Federal, state and local taxes. These services include negotiating Installment Agreements and Offer in Compromises with the Internal Revenue Service and local and state agencies.

Prior to establishing her own firm in 2004, Kathleen worked for Deloitte & Touch in San Francisco and for Dennis Bean in Fresno. She is a graduate of California State University- Fresno and San Joaquin College of Law where she obtained a Bachelor's degree in accounting (1987) and Master of Science in Taxation (1997), respectively. Kathleen has attained the specialty designation of Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisory (CIRA).

Kathleen 's professional memberships include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the California State Society of Certified Public Accounts (CalCPA), the Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors (AIRA) and the Central California Bankruptcy Association (CCBA). Kathleen is currently the Treasurer and is a past President of the Central California Bankruptcy Association.