

Kelly Ann Tran is an attorney with Mulvaney Barry Beatty Linn & Mayers LLP. Ms. Tran primarily represents financial institutions and creditors in all aspects of business and consumer insolvency proceedings. Ms. Tran served on the Board of Directors of the San Diego Bankruptcy Forum from January 2009 to December 2012, has produced several programs for the California Bankruptcy Forum and in 2011, Ms. Tran was selected to serve on the Southern District of California's Local Bankruptcy Rules Committee.

Ms. Tran attended the University of California, Los Angeles, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in 2003 in Political Science, specializing in International Relations. In 2007 she received her Juris Doctorate from American University's Washington College of Law. Ms. Tran's articles concerning international trade and gaming law have been published in the Gaming Law Review (August 2007) and the Appalachian Journal of Law (December 2006).

Ms. Tran is admitted to practice law in the state of California and before the United States District Courts for the Southern, Northern, Eastern and Central Districts of California.