

Paul R. Glassman

Mr. Glassman is a Shareholder at Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth, P.C. and Chair of the firm's Business Reorganization and Financial Restructuring Group. His practice focuses on corporate reorganization, workouts, bankruptcy, foreclosures, financings, distressed M&A and related litigation, with particular expertise in the municipal, media/ technology, real estate, health care and retail sectors. Throughout his practice, Mr. Glassman has represented a wide range of debtors, creditors, committees, purchasers, plan sponsors, municipalities and private-equity funds in bankruptcy courts throughout the country.

His experience spans a number of landmark bankruptcy cases, including the City of San Bernardino, California chapter 9 municipal bankruptcy case (debtor's counsel), the Orange County, California chapter 9 municipal bankruptcy case (counsel for the official subcommittee of Orange County Cities and the City of Irvine), the Sizzler Corporation chapter 11 bankruptcy case (counsel for the landlord committee) and the K-Mart chapter 11 bankruptcy case (counsel for Dreamworks SKG) – and a number of significant out-of-court restructurings. Listed as one of the “Top Bankruptcy Lawyers” by The Deal Magazine and a “Top 20 California Municipal Law Attorney” by The Daily Journal, and selected for inclusion on the California “Super Lawyers” list multiple years in a row, Mr. Glassman has also lectured extensively locally and nationally. In addition, Mr. Glassman has authored numerous articles in such publications as The Business Lawyer, the American Bankruptcy Law Journal, the American Bankruptcy Institute Journal, the Norton Bankruptcy Law Advisor and the Thomson Reuters/Aspatore publication, “Chapter 9 Bankruptcy Strategies.”

Mr. Glassman received his J.D. from Stanford Law School where he was a member of the Law Review and his M.A. in Economics and B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Glassman was also a member of The Phi Beta Kappa Society, and he served as a law clerk for United States Central District of California Judge Mariana R. Pfaelzer.