

Ron Bender – Levene, Neale, Bender, Yoo & Brill L.L.P.

Admitted to California Bar, 1989. Admitted to the United States District Court, Central, Eastern, Northern and Southern Districts of California and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Education: Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania (B.S. Summa Cum Laude, 1986); Stanford University School of Law (J.D. 1989). Extern for the Honorable Lloyd King, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California Bankruptcy Court. Founding and co-managing partner of Levene, Neale, Bender, Yoo & Brill L.L.P.

Ron has successfully reorganized and sold numerous companies and restructured the financial affairs of many individuals. He is widely regarded as a highly creative, results oriented bankruptcy attorney who is able to tackle complex problems and develop and implement creative solutions. He has repeatedly been listed by "Super Lawyers" as one of the top 100 lawyers in Southern California in regional surveys of his peers. He has one of the largest bankruptcy practices in Southern California, including in the representation of debtors, creditors' committee, creditors, and purchasers of businesses. Frequent author and speaker on bankruptcy and insolvency matters.