

Seth Moldoff, Senior Vice President, East West Bank

Seth joined East West Bank in 2015 to establish and manage the Special Assets Group. He and his team manage a portfolio of commercial loans to troubled companies. Seth is also the Senior Credit Supervisor for the Agricultural Lending Division.

Prior to East West Bank, Seth worked for Wells Fargo Bank's Credit Resolution Group, based in San Francisco. He managed a $2 billion portfolio of senior loans to over 300 troubled borrowers. Seth also worked for Citibank, in their Asset Based Lending and Leveraged Finance Groups, and completed an overseas posting to Sydney, Australia. He started his banking career at Continental Illinois National Bank in the Oil & Gas Division.

Seth earned an MBA from The University of Michigan (Ann Arbor, MI) and B.A. in Economics and Anthropology from Brandeis University (Boston, MA).

Seth has presented at various workout industry groups such as Turnaround Management Association, Special Asset Management Association, and Association of Insolvency & Restructuring Advisors.