

Manish Choudhary, ASA, CFA

Managing Director, Valuation Services

Professional Experience

Manish Choudhary is a Managing Director in Deloitte Advisory's Valuation practice in New York. Manish has supervised and performed diverse valuation engagements for over 25 years involving business enterprises, intangible assets, equipment, and facilities. Manish manages and performs valuation studies in a variety of industries including technology, telecommunications, media, consumer business, health care, financial services and manufacturing for purchase price allocations, impairment testing, fair value reporting, mergers and acquisition analyses, tax and regulatory compliance, bankruptcy re-organizations and strategic financial planning.

Manish has significant experience in performing valuations and providing audit assistance related to the valuation of investment portfolios including common equity, preferred stocks, warrants and debt.

Manish is the global leader of Deloitte's market solution related to the use of internal valuation specialists on audit engagements. As the global leader, Manish is responsible for developing and managing leading practices to facilitate the collaboration between the firm's audit teams and the firm's internal valuation specialists. In this role, Manish works closely with a number of the firm's largest audit teams and assists them in evaluating the reasonableness of the client's fair value estimates.

Manish is also a frequent presenter and author on valuation issues. He was a member of the Appraisal Foundation's working group that developed a best practices guidance related to the use of control premiums in valuations. Manish represents Deloitte on an inter-firm valuation committee consisting of valuation leaders from the largest six accounting firms. Manish was a member of the working group that authored the Mandatory Performance Framework for the Certified in Entity and Intangible Valuation ("CEIV") credential.

Manish has an M.B.A. in finance from the University of Rochester's Simon Business School, is an Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) and is a CFA charter holder.
