

Evan Hengel Bio

Evan Hengel is a managing director in BRG's Corporate Finance practice and has over 18 years of experience helping clients solve complex financial and operational challenges during periods of uncertainty.

He has served as chief financial officer, chief restructuring officer, and chairman of the board of directors to companies undergoing significant change and has experience advising management, boards of directors, and other stakeholders through difficult restructuring and/or M&A processes.

He has deep experience in industries such as retail and consumer products, technology, entertainment, real estate, and financial services and has worked on high profile cases like RadioShack, Quiksilver, Voyager Digital, CBL, Genesis Global, and WeWork.

Mr. Hengel has helped lead multiple engagements that have received "restructuring deal of the year" honors from the M&A Advisor, Association of Management Consulting Firms, and Turnaround Atlas Awards. He is a Certified Insolvency & Restructuring Advisor (CIRA).