

Steven Mitnick is a graduate of Muhlenberg College, where he received a B.A. in History. He then matriculated at Western New England College School of Law, graduating in 1981 with a Juris Doctor.

Steven is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association, Turnaround Management Association, New York Institute of Credit, and Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors. Over the course of his 34 years in practice, Steven has specialized in representation of Trustees, Assignees, and Receivers, and has served as a Chapter 11 Trustee, Receiver, Special Fiscal Agent, and Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors in hundreds of cases.

Steven has worked on and consummated sales of all kinds of assets in the context of Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 bankruptcies, Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors, State Court Receiverships, out-of-court settlements, and has been involved in every aspect concerning the wind down of all forms of corporate entities and businesses.

He has lectured extensively on all forms of corporate liquidation, especially on the subject of Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors and State Court Receiverships. Steven has been asked to lecture by the New Jersey Institute of Continuing Legal Education on several occasions regarding State Court Alternatives to Bankruptcy, where he is an author of the seminar materials and handbook.

Steven has personally handled more than 200 Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors and Receivership actions and all forms of corporate wind downs, a representative sample of same follows:

- Component Technology – Served as Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors in the liquidation of a family owned manufacturer of construction trusses. As a result of his appointment millions of dollars were recovered and returned to creditors by liquidating the facility and commencing litigation to collect the accounts receivables and preferences.
- H. K. Buzby, Inc. – As a result of his appointment as Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors, he liquidated multiple pieces of real estate owned by the Assignor and after a successful auction sale and individual market sales of the Assignor's real estate and litigation to collect the outstanding accounts receivables and preferences, several million dollars were paid to the secured creditor.
- Quay Caterers and RMV Marina – Appointed in these proceedings to serve as counsel to the Statutory Receiver pertaining to real estate and a marina in Sea Bright, New Jersey. Steven orchestrated an auction sale of the subject business selling both the real estate and marina business. After dealing with issues pertaining to riparian rights and several challenging real estate issues, he consummated the sale of assets which paid the first mortgage in full and made it possible to make significant payment to subordinate liens.

Before founding SM Law, PC, Steven was the founding principal of Mitnick & Malzberg, P.C., a boutique law firm, which he founded in 1986.

Steven also serves as Secretary of SM Financial Services Corporation, an entity formed to invest in and manage the purchase of financial assets from Trustees and others, especially judgments, Notes, Mortgages and Preferences and to supervise and manage the wind down of all forms of corporate entities.

Steven Mitnick Esq.
Smitnick @ sm-lawpc.com