

Douglas Rosner is a Director at the law firm of Goulston & Storrs based in Boston, where he practices in the firm's Bankruptcy Group. Doug has extensive experience representing clients in complex chapter 11 reorganizations, chapter 7 liquidations, workouts and related litigation throughout the United States. He has represented corporate debtors, unsecured creditors' committees, lenders, secured and unsecured creditors, purchasers of assets, investors, landlords and trustees. In addition, Doug has counseled lenders and borrowers in corporate and real estate financing transactions, asset-backed securitizations and workouts. He served as co-chair of the Boston Bar Association Bankruptcy Law Section and on the Boston Bar Association Council, Executive Committee and Finance Committee. He is on the Board of Directors of the Turnaround Management Association – Northeast Chapter and is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute. Doug has been recognized by Chambers & Partners as one of "America's Leading Business Lawyers" annually since 2003. He is also consistently ranked among the top lawyers in The Deal's bankruptcy league tables. Doug received his undergraduate degree, cum laude, in 1988 from Brandeis University, and his law degree, cum laude, in 1991 from Boston College Law School.