

Bob Duffy specializes in performance improvement and restructuring, leading companies and their stakeholders at every stage of the corporate life cycle to grow and prosper in the midst of market changes. He has assessed business opportunities and created solutions through detailed analysis of each company, while working closely alongside management and key constituents. Bob has extensive experience in analysis of business line profitability, operational analysis, liquidity and capital structure assessment and working capital management. In these roles, Bob has led project teams on more than 100 engagements guiding clients in need of fast and decisive improvement to revitalize operations, implement operational improvements and reposition businesses for future growth. Prior to joining BRG, Bob was the Global Practice Leader of FTI's Corporate Finance/Restructuring practice, a member of the firm's executive committee and also served as the leader of FTI's retail and consumer industry practice. Bob joined FTI with its acquisition of PricewaterhouseCoopers' Business Recovery Services group.
