Profile

Mr. Rue is a Deloitte Advisory Managing Director in Deloitte Transactions and Business Analytics LLP. He has approximately 25 years of valuation experience. He has completed valuation work in a number of different industries with emphasis on energy (upstream, midstream, refining and oil field services) and waste management. He has provided these valuation consulting services to a client base ranging from private companies to publicly held multinational corporations.

Experience

Mr. Rue specializes in the appraisal of closely held business entities and the assets of publicly traded companies. He has performed valuation engagements for mergers & acquisitions, tax compliance, litigation support, financial reporting, general corporate planning, and other special projects during his career. Additionally, he has worked extensively with companies to help them implement ASC 350 and ASC 805, including the valuation of intangible assets.

He has valued closely-held common stock (on a controlling and minority basis), preferred stock, derivative securities, debt instruments, partnership interests, stock options and a variety of other intangible assets, including trademarks, trade names, patents, technology, contracts, workforces, and covenants not to compete.

While at Deloitte, Mr. Rue has reviewed a large number of appraisals for Deloitte audit clients. This experience has allowed him to understand key issues that Big 4 audit firms look for when reviewing valuation reports.

Mr. Rue has served as an expert witness and has provided testimony in connection with litigation matters involving valuation issues.
