

Steve Darr, Huron

Mr. Darr has more than 30 years of experience providing accounting, auditing and financial consulting services to business organizations, many of which are experiencing significant financial and operating difficulties. Mr. Darr has led advisory engagements involving several significant reorganization cases, has served in a variety of fiduciary capacities, including Creditors' Trustee, Liquidating Trustee, Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors and Chapter 11 Trustee.

In addition, Mr. Darr was formerly a Chapter 7 Trustee for the District Of New Hampshire. Mr. Darr's experience includes identification and pursuit of potential causes of action, including tortious interference claims, claims against directors and officers, fraudulent conveyance, preferential payments, solvency, indubitable equivalency and other related matters.