

Brett A. Lowrey

Managing Director

Dallas

Qualifications

B.S.	Oklahoma State University
M.B.A.	Southern Methodist University
PAST	BMO Capital Markets KPMG

Mr. Lowrey is a Managing Director and has experience advising public and private companies and creditor groups in financial restructuring, merger and acquisition, and financing transactions within both the oil & gas industry and a variety of other sectors. Mr. Lowrey's notable transaction experience includes Nine Point Energy, Breitburn Energy, Connacher Oil and Gas, Swift Energy, Triangle Petroleum, Samson Resources, Emerald Oil, American Eagle Energy, EnQuest, PA Resources, Southern Pacific Resources, Entegra, Synagro, and Aquilex. He is based in the firm's Dallas office.

Before joining Houlihan Lokey, Mr. Lowrey was in the investment banking group of BMO Capital Markets, specializing in mergers and acquisitions, public and private equity, debt capital and structured finance in the oil & gas industry. He was also in the corporate finance group at KPMG, specializing in mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, and private placements.

Mr. Lowrey has also spoken and co-authored on various topics, including: financial restructuring issues and trends, distressed M&A and the oil & gas industry, among others.

Mr. Lowrey holds a B.S. from Oklahoma State University and an MBA from the Southern Methodist University Cox School of Business.