Peter Heinz is a Managing Director in the Turnaround & Restructuring practice. Mr. Heinz has more than 13 years of experience, including more than ten years in the restructuring field. He has industry expertise in energy, power and products; retail and consumer products; and financial institutions.

Mr. Heinz holds a B.B.A. in finance and accounting from Texas Christian University and an M.B.A. in financial consulting and finance from Southern Methodist University. He is a Certified Insolvency & Restructuring Advisor. He is a member of the Association of Insolvency & Restructuring Advisors and is an active participant in the local Dallas professional restructuring community, including acting as the Treasurer of the Dallas/Fort Worth chapter of the Turnaround Management Association.

Mr. Heinz's restructuring experience includes both creditor and company-side engagements. He has worked on and led projects, including cash flow forecasting, business plan analysis, lease rejection and assumptions analysis, enterprise valuations, financial statement analysis, liquidation analysis, derivative valuation and bankruptcy administration. In addition, Mr. Heinz has extensive experience managing both internal and external teams.

Mr. Heinz has represented a number of companies navigating the restructuring process, including RadioShack, Hostess Brands, ExGen Texas Power, and TXCO Resources. He also has represented a number of different creditor constituencies, including serving as the financial advisor for the secured lenders of Chaparral Energy and Sabine Oil and Gas, for the lenders of Pacific Exploration & Production and for the unsecured creditors of Lehman Brothers and Energy XXI. In addition to these representative clients, Mr. Heinz has advised numerous other stakeholders in confidential matters.

Prior to joining FTI Consulting, Mr. Heinz worked as a commercial banker at Hinsdale Bank & Trust, where he managed a portfolio of commercial real estate and commercial and industrial loans and underwrote new commercial loan requests for presentation to senior management. Before that, Mr. Heinz worked as an FP&A business manager for the Fixed Wing Division and Development programs at EFW Incorporated.
