Douglas Spelfogel is a partner and business litigation attorney with Foley & Lardner LLP and heads the financial restructuring and bankruptcy group in New York. He concentrates his practice on representation of creditors, creditors' committees, venture funds, lenders, landlords, trustees, officers, directors, and debtors in complex financial restructurings, asset sales, workouts, and business reorganizations both out-of-court and through Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Mr. Spelfogel has appeared as counsel of record in over two dozen reported decisions and served as counsel for various parties in such national reorganizations and liquidations, including Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC; General Growth Properties, Inc.; American Airlines, Peabody Energy, Frontier Insurance Group; Williams Communications; Enron, Inc.; Herman's Sporting Goods, Inc.; and Sesame Street Retail Stores, Inc. Mr. Spelfogel has also represented Fortune 100 companies, fiduciaries, and financial institutions in various roles in bankruptcy proceedings and bankruptcy-related litigation, including the Special SIPA trustee for Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities, LLC; General Electric as secured lender; Cordell Funds as non-institutional secured creditors; and Simon Properties and its predecessor, Corporate Property Investors, as landlord and creditor.
